I, ROBERT L. SCHULZ, declare under penalty of perjury:

1. I am a Defendant in the matter captioned above, and I make this Declaration in support of the motion to dismiss the complaint and in opposition to the motion for summary judgment.
2. I make this Declaration in my individual capacity and as Chairman of Defendant We The People Foundation for Constitutional Education, Inc. (“WTP Foundation”), and as Chairman of Defendant We The People Congress, Inc. (“WTP Congress”).

Purpose

3. For the convenience of the Court, this Declaration pulls together in one handy reference place ten of the most important communications from the Defendants to the Plaintiffs during the Defendants’ process of Petitioning for Redress of constitutional torts that began in 1999. Each of the ten exhibits to this Declaration represents another of Defendants’ repeated Petitions for Redress. Each was discussed in more detail and included as one of the 78 Exhibits in Schulz Declaration #2, filed May 23, 2007.

4. Exhibit A is a copy of Defendants' "REMONSTRANCE" -- a Petition for Redress of Grievances -- that was personally served on the UNITED STATES on April 13, 2000, by a delegation of The People representing all 50 states of the Union. It was served on a high-ranking aide to President Clinton in the White House, and on a high-ranking aide to Speaker Hastert in the Capitol, and on a high-ranking aide to Senate Majority Leader Lott in the Capitol. The Court's attention is invited to the emphasis placed in that Petition for Redress on the federal income tax system and specifically to the questions regarding the ratification of the 16th Amendment and the liability of most Americans to file and pay the tax in light of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations, including CFR 1.861-8(f)(1) which appears to define gross income as income derived from foreign sources. See also Schulz Declaration #2, paragraphs 12-13 and Exhibits S and T.
5. Exhibit B is a copy of Defendants' STATEMENT SUBMITTED TO THE (UNITED STATES) SENATE FINANCE COMMITTEE -- another Petition for Redress of Grievances. The Court's attention is invited to the emphasis placed on the federal income tax system and specifically to the questions regarding the ratification of the 16th Amendment and the liability of most Americans to file and pay the tax or to have money withheld from their pay, especially in light of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations, including CFR 1.861-8(f)(1) which appears to define gross income as income derived from foreign sources. See also Schulz Declaration #2, paragraphs 20-27 and Exhibits I and L.
6. Exhibit C is a copy of Defendants' QUESTIONS TO BE ANSWERED BY THE (UNITED STATES) DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE AND THE INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE -- another Petition for Redress of Grievances. Dated March 16, 2002, this Petition was served on Congressman Roscoe Bartlett, Attorney General Ashcroft, Treasury Secretary O'Neil, and Assistant to the President, Lawrence Lindsey. It included 538 questions spread over 15 lines of inquiry. The Court's attention is invited to the emphasis placed on the federal income tax system and specifically to the questions regarding the ratification of the 16th Amendment (page 35-56) and the liability of most Americans to file and pay the tax or to have money withheld from their pay (page 1-6), especially in light of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations, including CFR 1.861-8(f)(1) which appears to define gross income as income derived from foreign sources (page 88-91). See also Schulz Declaration #2, paragraph 61 and Exhibit G.

7. Exhibit D is a copy of Defendant Schulz's CONSTITUENT LETTER to UNITED STATES Congressman John Sweeney, dated April 15, 2002 -- another form of Petition for Redress of Grievances. On April 15, 2002, every one of the 535 members of Congress received, by personal service at their offices on Capitol Hill, a similar CONSTITUENT LETTER from one of their constituents. Included with each letter was a copy of the full audio/video/text/transcript of the Truth-in-Taxation Hearing held in the District of Columbia on February 27 and 28, 2002. Included here is a copy of the certified transcript of the Hearing. The attention of the Court is invited to the emphasis placed on the federal income tax system and specifically to the questions regarding the ratification of the 16th Amendment (page 193-384) and the liability of most Americans to file and pay the tax or to have money withheld from their pay (page 3-30). The attention of the Court is also invited to the fact that the CONSTITUTENT LETTERS requested the members of Congress to do one of two things: 1) schedule a full congressional hearing, requiring IRS and DOJ to answer the questions and address the evidence; or 2) direct the Department of Justice and the Internal Revenue Service to stop forcing employers to withhold and stop forcing Americans to file an income tax return, and place a moratorium on civil and criminal prosecutions of income tax laws and furlough the people currently in prison on convictions of failure to file income tax returns. See also Schulz Declaration #2, paragraph 65 and Exhibits XX and TT.

8. Exhibit E is a copy of Defendants' PETITION (TO THE UNITED STATES) FOR REDRESS OF GRIEVANCES RELATING TO THE APPLICATION OF THE ARMED FORCES OF THE UNITED STATES IN HOSTILITIES IN IRAQ WITHOUT A DECLARATION OF WAR and transmittal MEMORANDUM -- another Petition for Redress of Grievances. Dated November 8, 2002, this Petition was served This Petition was served on every member of Congress and the President. The Court's attention is invited to the fact that the Petition was signed by thousands of Americans, seeking answers to twenty-three questions. See also Schulz Declaration #2, paragraph 69 and Exhibit ZZ.
9. Exhibit F is a copy of Defendants' PETITION (TO THE UNITED STATES) FOR REDRESS OF GRIEVANCES RELATING TO THE "WAR ON TERRORISM" and transmittal MEMORANDUM -- another Petition for Redress of Grievances. Dated November 8, 2002, this Petition was served on every member of Congress and the President. The Court's attention is invited to the fact that the Petition was signed by thousands of Americans, seeking answers to forty-one questions. See also Schulz Declaration #2, paragraph 69 and Exhibit ZZ.

10. Exhibit G is a copy of Defendants' PETITION (TO THE UNITED STATES) FOR REDRESS OF GRIEVANCES RELATING TO THE FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM and transmittal MEMORANDUM -- another Petition for Redress of Grievances. Dated November 8, 2002, this Petition was served on every member of Congress and the President. The Court's attention is invited to the fact that the Petition was signed by thousands of Americans, seeking answers to fifty-five questions. See also Schulz Declaration #2, paragraph 69 and Exhibit ZZ.
11. Exhibit H is a copy of a Defendants' PETITION (TO THE UNITED STATES) FOR REDRESS OF GRIEVANCES RELATING TO THE FEDERAL INCOME TAX and transmittal MEMORANDUM -- another Petition for Redress of Grievances. Dated November 8, 2002, this Petition was served on every member of Congress and the President. The Court's attention is invited to the fact that attached to the Petition was a STATEMENT OF FACTS AND BELIEFS REGARDING THE INDIVIDUAL INCOME TAX, which corresponded to the 538 questions in the Petition for Redress served on the United States on March 16, 2002 (see par. 6 above) and were based entirely on the answers provided by tax professionals under oath at the Truth in Taxation Hearing (See transcript, par.7 above). The Court's attention is invited to the emphasis placed in the STATEMENT on the questions regarding the ratification of the 16th Amendment (STATEMENT,pages 17-30) and the liability of most Americans to file and pay the tax or to have money withheld from their pay (STATEMENT, pages 45-49), especially in light of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations, including CFR 1.861-8(f)(1) which appears to define gross income as income derived from foreign sources (STATEMENT, pages 53-56). See also Schulz Declaration #2, paragraph 69 and Exhibit ZZ.

12. Exhibit I is a copy of Defendants' LETTER TO THE UNITED STATES -- another Petition for Redress of Grievances. Dated March 15, 2003, the Petition was served on IRS Commissioner Everson, Attorney General Ashcroft and Treasury Secretary Snow. The attention of the Court is invited to the fact that the "Blue Folder" was attached to the letter. The Blue Folder included the same STATEMENT OF FACTS AND BELIEFS REGARDING THE INDIVIDUAL INCOME TAX that was served on every member of Congress and the President on November 8, 2002 (See paragraph 11 above). Again, the STATEMENT corresponded to the 538 questions that were served on the United States on March 16, 2002 (See paragraph 6 above) and was based entirely on the answers provided by tax professionals under oath at the Truth in Taxation Hearing (See transcript, Exhibit 7 above). The Court's attention is again invited to the emphasis placed in the STATEMENT on the questions regarding the ratification of the 16th Amendment (STATEMENT, pages 17-30) and the liability of most Americans to file and pay the tax or to have money withheld from their pay (STATEMENT, pages 45-49), especially in light of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations, including CFR 1.861-8(f)(1) which appears to define gross income as income derived from foreign sources (STATEMENT, pages 53-56). See also Schulz Declaration #2, paragraph 75 and 76 and Exhibits EEE, FFF, and GGG.

13. Exhibit J is a copy of Defendants' LETTER TO THE UNITED STATES -- another Petition for Redress of Grievances. Dated May 10, 2004, the letter with its Attachment #1 and Attachment #2 was served on the President, Treasury Secretary Snow, Attorney General Ashcroft, Senator Kerry and IRS Commissioner Everson. The Court's attention is invited to the fact that the Petition included a research report by Phil Hart titled "Constitutional Income" proving wages are not income within the meaning of the 16th Amendment, and requested answers to 38 questions. The Petition also included a research report by attorney Larry Becraft titled, "Analysis of the Federal Income Tax" proving that ordinary Americans are not liable for the federal income tax, and requesting answers to 5 questions.
