GOVERNMENT'S OBJECTION TO DEFENDANTS' NOTICE
AND MOTION FOR A BILL OF PARTICULARS

The government hereby opposes the most motion of defendants Edward Brown and Elaine Brown for an order directing the government to provide a bill of particulars. (Doc. No. 31.) The defendants' motion is in all material respects the same as a motion for a bill of particulars that this court denied on July 24, 2006 (Doc. No 26.) The Court denied that motion on the ground that the indictment sufficiently sets forth the facts on which the charges are based and, in addition, the government is providing the defendants with open file discovery. The defendants point to no new facts or circumstances that would lead to a different result.

For the reasons set forth herein and the reasons set forth in the government's opposition to the defendants' original motion for a bill of particulars, which is incorporated by reference herein, the government respectfully requests that the defendants' motion for a bill of particulars be denied.

Respectfully submitted,

THOMAS P. COLANTUONO
United States Attorney
