

Steve Hempfling

Born in Ohio and raised on a farm, Steve Hempfling learned about individual rights and the U.S. Constitution from his father who was active at preserving freedom. His father was in a coalition trying to stop "unbacked" paper currency from being issued during the John F. Kennedy Presidency.

Steve Hempfling has a degree in electronic engineering and has worked at Texas Instruments and in the "Silicon Valley," located in California. In 1985, he helped found Free Enterprise Society along with Verl Speer and George Hill. He put his money where his mouth was and challenged the IRS to prove it had a law to require Americans to file income tax returns. That was 27 years ago.

Today, Steve Hempfling is the current Director of Free Enterprise Society (www.freeenterprisesociety.com).

And the IRS....well they still have not proven that anyone is required to file and pay an income tax.

THE INCOME TAX HOAX!

Steve Hempfling will adeptly give a comprehensive seminar on the Constitutional Problems of the Income Tax.

Just some of the topics covered will be:

Is there a law that requires an individual to file an Income Tax Return? We Can't Find One, but maybe you can.

What the Constitution Really gives to Government in the way of Limited Tax Powers.

How do your Constitutional Rights apply as far as the filing of Income Tax Returns?

What the Privacy Act is and what it has to do with a requirement to file and pay.

Internal Revenue Code. Where does it require Americans to file income tax returns?

What The Supreme Court has to say about filing of Income Tax Returns

Steve will finish with some of the successful strategies he and his team have used in the courts. This is a solution-oriented presentation by another true patriot that is not to be missed.
