

Procedure to Nominate a CC 2009 Delegate

1. Click on: <http://givemeliberty.org/Delegates2009/SignIn.aspx>
2. You will be asked to log in to our secure server. If you need your password, enter your email and click the link indicated.

Note: Remember that Yahoo! blocks most WTP emails (including password emails), and that all password emails may sometimes be temporarily delayed depending on the current email processing load on our WTP server. This occurs most frequently when we are processing our bulk email lists.

3. Qualifications to register a nomination: Any person may nominate ONE individual; either himself/herself, or another person.
4. After secure log in, click on “Add a nominee”.
5. Enter the nominee’s contact information. Note that although these fields are pre-populated based on the existing Profile data associated with the log-in email ID, the existing Profile data will NOT be changed as part of creating the nomination entry. If you are nominating another person, you will likely need to update most of these fields.
6. Education: Enter your formal educational background. Please use simple text without html code or text enhancements (i.e., bold, italics, etc.). Example below:

Master of Arts, Harvard. (Political Science)
Bachelor of Arts, Boston College (Mathematics)
Jefferson High School, Chicago, IL
University of Iowa College of Law (Ph.D., Magna Cum Laude)

7. Profession: Enter your professional background or other qualifications. Use this space to detail your personal qualifications and professional achievements. Example:

Admitted to Massachusetts Bar, 1761; Elected to Massachusetts Assembly, 1770; Attended First Continental Congress, 1774-'76; Signed Declaration of Independence, 1776; Appointed Diplomat to France, 1776-'79; Member of assembly to form State Constitution of Massachusetts. Have authored three books on the Constitution. I have been the owner/CEO of a successful metals fabrication business in the Chicago area for 14 years. My corporate website is www.history-making-metals.com.

Note that this field supports most html text enhancements including the inclusion of html links for graphics and videos. Do NOT use “tables” in this field. Use the default font and font size.

8. Personal PUBLIC Statement: Enter your short, personal public statement. Use this space to provide details relevant to your value as a CC 2009 delegate and your personal commitment to Liberty. You may also wish to provide direct contact information here beyond your email and public phone # provided above. Example:

Greetings fellow citizens! Today we embark on a most righteous cause: to turn the course of history and stop those who would seek to deny us our Liberty. We have but a small window of time to reclaim our heritage - our Natural Right - the Divine gift of Freedom before it is lost for all ages. I commit myself to this most noble cause and seek to humbly represent each of you as our new National Congress convenes to discuss the matters of Liberty and the means by which we may yet reclaim both our Republic and our Constitution. The public may contact me at nominee@heretofore.com or (223) 345-6789 between 8-5 PM, Pacific.

Note that this field supports most html text enhancements including the inclusion of html links for graphics and videos. Do NOT use “tables” in this field. Use the default font and font size.

9. PRIVATE Personal Statement: This information will NOT be disclosed to the public. It will only be disclosed to WTP personnel or assignees directly involved in reviewing and approving potential delegate nominees. Please use simple text without html tags or text enhancements (i.e., bold, italics, etc.). Example below:

For disclosure purposes, I was charged with three counts of 26 USC 7203 (Willful Failure to File) in 1995, with no convictions. If CC 2009 begins around March 1, I will only be able to serve for two (2) consecutive weeks, ending March 15th, being able to return again to Philly on April 2nd. Please call me on my private phone number if you would like additional information.

10. Additional Questions: Select the proper response for every question, yes or no.

11. Profile Photo: Browse your computer to select a moderately sized .jpg, or .gif file that will appear with your nomination profile on the WTP Congress state web pages. Note this graphic is ideally a cropped “head and shoulders” photo. The photo file itself must physically be on your computer before you can upload it. You cannot “upload” a photo from a third-party web source.

If you need to save an existing photo from the web to your personal computer, please right-click your mouse on the photo and “Save Picture As...” If you need, please contact someone who can crop/edit the photo. Graphic files cannot exceed 100 KB in size and will be displayed on the WTP Congress web page at a size of approximately 1.5” wide. To the left is an example cropped head and shoulders graphic. (courtesy John Hancock)

Note: If the system reports an error during the submit/review process, technical limitations require that you MUST re-select your photo file again before resubmitting your nomination.

12. Submit & Preview: If you encounter NO errors, your nomination is no stored and complete.

13. Modification and/or Deletion – Nominators can modify --OR-- withdraw their nomination at any time. If not available at the time of nomination submittal, photos can be submitted later by logging back in at the link above, and selecting the “modify nomination” option.

Nomination Review, Approval & Delegate Voting -- Procedures for reviewing and approving delegate nominees for vote eligibility are being developed. Potential nominees will be reviewed by WTP management and/or competent individuals within each state. These procedures as well the final procedures for e-voting for Delegates will be released in the near future.